

Robert Stanger M.Ed

Chief Global Officer

Robert Stanger has 14 years of hands-on, classroom experience as an English teacher working with at-risk students at Keystone Charter School, as well as two years at the university level teaching first year German. In addition, he has spent five years working as an ESL, SAT, and TOEFL instructor at both the Mercer County Literacy Council and the Learning Sanctuary of Singapore teaching English to students from a wide variety of linguistic backgrounds such as: Chinese, Arabic, Korean, Vietnamese, Tai, and Russian. Hundreds of educators have attended his ESL seminars in the U.S., Singapore, and Thailand, including the head of the Catholic Schools of Thailand and the Thai Minister of Education. The Vietnamese Ministry of Education, as well as METEN English Academy in China have also sponsored Bob to deliver English language training in their respective countries.

Bob's educational qualifications include Bachelor degrees in both the English and German languages from Westminster College, Masters Degree in German at Kent State University, and postgraduate work in Educational Philosophy at Slippery Rock University. In addition, Bob has a Masters Degree in Education with English Language Learning and Child Development specializations from Ashford University. He graduated Magna Cum Laude (with high honors) from Westminster and Highest Honors while earning a Masters.

Diane Stanger

Managing Director of Operations

Diane Stanger has worked the last five years as an ESL instructor teaching English to students from a diverse variety of linguistic backgrounds including: China, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Japan, and Poland. Her educational qualifications include a Bachelor's degree in Education with a Minor in Child Development as well as a specialization in English language learners. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Ashford University, is a member of the Gold Key Honor Society, and has authored two ESL books.

Diane is well-traveled, experiencing many different cultures on three continents. In addition, she has studied both the French and German languages which has granted her insights into the challenges and obstacles faced by second language learners, knowledge gained that she applies to her classroom instructional approach.

Zoey Nguyen

Managing Director: South East Asia

Zoey Nguyen has been working as a senior counsellor for Vietnamese students for over 10 years. She has sent students to study in Singapore, UK, Australia, New Zealand and USA-granting her deep insights into the business of study abroad consultancy. She's been working for American educational groups for the last 5 years and is well acquainted with the American education system.

Zoey is also well known as the founder of SACA (Vietnam Study Abroad Consultant Association). Having spent time as an international student herself, 4 years studying in the Czech Republic, she understands the challenges international students face in their new environments- such as homesickness and culture shock. Her educational qualification include a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the Czech Republic.

Sam Kainth

Associate Director: South Asia & ASEAN

Sam Kainth has worked the last 14 years as an ESL instructor for Salesian Catholic Schools in Thailand. His experience of ESL teaching, Exchange programs coordinator to; India, Taiwan, Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Finland and Korea make him a scholar of multi-competence. He's quite fluent in many Asian languages such as Hindi, Punjabi, Thai, Malay and Thai.

His educational qualifications include a Bachelor's Degree in Arts from India with specialization in English Language learners. He's the ENO Thailand Coordinator of ENO-Environment online organization from Finland which is a global school network and web community for sustainable development.

Herve Serge Amoa

Managing Director for Western Africa

Since 2014, Herve's been working as foreign expert and TEFL/TESOL Coach with many private and governmental institutions in China. He has travelled into many countries around the world including Thailand, Vietnam, Dubai, Nigeria, Intanbul for seminars and tourism. He is fluent in English, French and can also express himself fairly well in Chinese as well as in Spanish. He is also the founder president of ASSOBOM (Cameroon based charity organization reaching out grassroots people with sustainable solutions and supporting underprivileged communities).

He's holder of a Bachelor's degree in law; a certification in judicial and taxation advising. He's also an experienced and certified TEFL/TESOL Coach.